
SOURCING A DOCUMENT

1. What is the title?
2. Who wrote it?
3. What type of text is it?
4. When was it made?

SOURCING A DOCUMENT

1. What is the title?
2. Who wrote it?
3. What type of text is it?
4. When was it made?

SOURCING A DOCUMENT

1. What is the title?
2. Who wrote it?
3. What type of text is it?
4. When was it made?

SOURCING A DOCUMENT

1. What is the title?
 2. Who wrote it?
 3. What type of text is it?
 4. When was it made?
-

CLOSE READING

1. What is the Main idea?
2. What is the Central idea?
3. What is the authors point of view?
4. What was the authors purpose for making this document?
5. Who's the author's audience?
6. What evidence convinced you that you are correct about your answers?

CLOSE READING

1. What is the Main idea?
2. What is the Central idea?
3. What is the authors point of view?
4. What was the authors purpose for making this document?
5. Who's the author's audience?
6. What evidence convinced you that you are correct about your answers?

CLOSE READING

1. What is the Main idea?
2. What is the Central idea?
3. What is the authors point of view?
4. What was the authors purpose for making this document?
5. Who's the author's audience?
6. What evidence convinced you that you are correct about your answers?

CLOSE READING

1. What is the Main idea?
 2. What is the Central idea?
 3. What is the authors point of view?
 4. What was the authors purpose for making this document?
 5. Who's the author's audience?
 6. What evidence convinced you that you are correct about your answers?
-

CONTEXTUALIZE

1. What can you infer about life in America at the time this was made?

CONTEXTUALIZE

1. What can you infer about life in America at the time this was made?

CONTEXTUALIZE

1. What can you infer about life in America at the time this was made?

CONTEXTUALIZE

1. What can you infer about life in America at the time this was made?
-

CORROBORATE

1. Does another document agree or disagree with this one? Explain how or why.

CORROBORATE

1. Does another document agree or disagree with this one? Explain how or why.

CORROBORATE

1. Does another document agree or disagree with this one? Explain how or why.

CORROBORATE

1. Does another document agree or disagree with this one? Explain how or why.